New Business--

Janice reminded committee chairs to please prioritize job assignments for the people who have signed up to serve on the day(s) of the event. She also offered to sign members up for events if they lack access or experience difficulty signing up on SignUpGenius. Members may contact her by phone or email.

Janice informed the court that we might need to buy salads for the Benedictine Sisters spaghetti Dinner. The cost will be approximately $400. She also announced that the Mother/Daughter Tea party will be postponed until next year due to scheduling conflicts. We can possibly use the money allocated for the tea party to cover the cost of the salads. We will need a motion and approval from the court. We will discuss this at the March meeting.

Business From the Floor --

Judy Gleason requested that CDA host hospitality after 9:00 Mass in March, April, or May. We will discuss at the March meeting.
